Washington, D. C.

Sir:

The Commission has received information to the effect that Mrs. Ethel Greenglass Rosenberg, 142 Goerck St., New York, N. Y. and Mrs. Stella Hope (Pogarsky) Page, present address unknown, are alleged to have pro-Communist sympathies. Mrs. Page's husband, about whom no derogatory information is known, is reported to be employed as an Engineering Draftsman by the Bulova Watch Company, 6210 Woodside Ave., Long Island City, New York.

It is reported that while Mrs. Rosenberg and Mrs. Page resided at 111 South Third Street, Brooklyn, New York, they distributed Communist literature at the doors of the various apartments in that building. It is further reported that on April 13, 1939, while living at this address, they signed nominating petitions of the Communist party. In addition, Mrs. Page is said to have secured one page of signatures for the Communist Party candidate.

The Commission has made no investigations of these persons and has not verified the statements made herein.

This matter is referred to you for your information.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Wm. H. McMillen

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG

My dear Colonel Constant:

During the course of an official investigation, it was determined from a reliable and confidential source that JULIUS ROSENBERG, of 10 Monroe Street, Manhattan, New York City, is a member of the Communist Party and transferred from Branch 168 of the Industrial Division of the Communist Party to the East Side Club of the First A. D., under transfer number 12179, February 1944.

Mrs. FLORENCE McLAUGHLIN, secretary to the vice president of Knickerbocker Village, 10 Monroe Street, advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG had moved to this address as of April 15, 1942, at which time he signed a two-year lease for Apartment GE-11. At this time he stated that he was an Army Inspector for the United States Signal Corps, Newark, New Jersey.

Mrs. McLAUGHLIN stated that this employment was verified at the time the lease was signed and it was again verified by letter dated January 31, 1944, from Mr. SAMUEL FSTER of the United States Signal Corps, 309 Washington Street, Newark. This letter advised that Mr. ROSENBERG had been with the Signal Corps approximately three years.

This information is being submitted to your office for whatever action you deem advisable.

Sincerely yours,

Note to file:

Inasmuch as Subject was found to be a member of the U.S. Signal Corps, no further investigation is being conducted.

MEMO:

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG
IS - C.

At 8:45 P. M., this evening, Assistant Director D. M. Ladd called from the Bureau, and stated that in October, 1944, the New York Office wrote to the Service Command of the War Department in this area concerning the captioned subject.

Subject is identified as living at 10 Monroe Street, in New York City. He was born May 12, 1918.

Mr. Ladd stated that apparently our letter to the Service Command indicated that on October 6, 1944, ROSENBERG was transferred from the 16th Industrial Branch of the Communist Party to the East Side Club.

As a result of our letter, the Army has allegedly suspended ROSENBERG, and the latter's attorney is now raising trouble at the Bureau.

Mr. Ladd stated that apparently the Bureau did not receive a copy of this letter, or if they did, it could not be found, and he therefore requested that a summary of the letter be immediately sent to the Bureau and that a copy of the original letter be forwarded tomorrow. He also requested that the source of our information concerning the subject be set forth.

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG
 ESPIONAGE - R

At approximately 1:15 a.m. I discussed with Mr. Belmont the ramifications of the ROSENBERG allegations. I pointed out to him that in GREENGLASS' signed statement he states that his wife recruited him at the request and direction of his brother-in-law JULIUS ROSENBERG. I pointed out that we do not have a picture of ROSENBERG although we have numerous references; that he is living at 10 Monroe Street Knickerbocker Village, and that it would be virtually impossible to pick him up on a surveillance tomorrow morning with any degree of certainty. It was my recommendation that we approach his apartment at approximately 8 a.m. and invite him to the office for an interview.

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE -R

I called Mr. Belmont at 3:10 p.m. on June 16th and advised him that ROSENBERG will not talk. He is talking about wanting to get an attorney. The agents advised that on one or two occasions they thought he was going to break over, but they are now satisfied that he is not going to talk. I pointed out to Belmont that we received a short subsequent statement from GREENGLASS further implicating ROSENBERG, which statement was obtained just before he went down for arraignment. I read the statement to Belmont and told him I would put it on a teletype immediately.

Mr. Belmont advised that we should tell ROSENBERG that we are merely attempting to secure his cooperation and if he does not want to cooperate with us, he is free to leave the office at any time, but we would like to obtain from him a written voluntary waiver of search and would accompany him right now up to his home to see if this thing could be cleaned up one way or the other; that we would like to continue to talk to him tomorrow or at any time at his convenience and want him to feel free to call us and we might call him; that we cannot assure him, if he does not want to cooperate with us, that the Grand Jury may decide to consider this matter and that being the case he could be called before the Grand Jury as a witness. This information was passed on to SA William Norton, who is handling the interview and I requested Norton to keep me advised.

I pointed out to Mr. Belmont that there was another alternative that being a complaint being filed against him and that he be lodged in jail under a bond like GREENGLASS* and that pressure might help him crack.

Mr. Belmont advised that that possibility had been considered, but that this was the policy they wanted to follow.

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

Inspector A. H. Belmont of the Bureau called at approximately 5:10 P.M. and advised that we should open a full scale investigation on ROSENBERG's activities, concentrating on seeking corroborative evidence of his espionage activities. In general, this investigation can be much more open than the usual type of espionage investigation. We can, in general, openly interview people seeking the facts that we want. Belmont advised that the leads should be set out by teletype and the investigation should be pushed vigorously.

I advised Belmont that ROSENBERG did not agree to give us a voluntary waiver of search. He did want to leave our discussion and was permitted to do so, and it was discreetly ascertained that when he left the building, he went to visit an attorney who is believed to have represented him before.

Belmont requested that we forward to the Bureau, this evening, a teletype of the pertinent developments on this case to date.

This information was furnished to SAS Robert R. Cranville and William F. Norton.

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE-R

Personnel records furnished by Mr. Peter R. Certo, Personnel Director, JAMESON RADI & PHOTOGRAPH CORPORATION, 111 8th Avenue, N.Y.C., disclose that JULIUS ROSENBERG, 10 Monroe Street, N.Y.C., was employed as an Assistant Engineer (Design and Development) by that corporation from February 26, 1945 to December 7, 1945. However, correspondence in the Personnel file to L.D. #7, 45 Astor Place reflects that ROSENBERG as of February 27, 1945, had been assigned to that corporation as a U. S. Signal Corp Inspector for approximately two years.

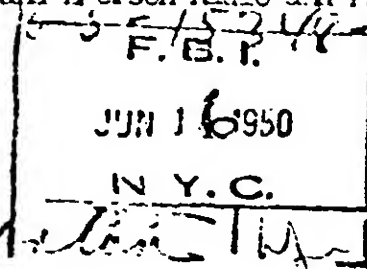

According to an Occupational Classification affidavit to Local Draft Board #7, the subject's duties are explained as follows:

"Associate Engineer and development engineer under general direction. He is responsible for the design and development of a Bureau of Ships Communications project (Priority A-1). Designs electrical circuits to be used in the equipment, experimentally checks these circuits in the laboratory; draws up complete specifications used by the manufacturing division who build and test equipment in production quantities. Also serves as consultant to manufacturing supervisors when troubles arise in production. Constantly engages in experiments to improve quality of equipment. Job requires extensive training and experience in radio engineering knowledge of higher mathematics, knowledge and use of extensive, highly complicated technical equipment."

Prior work experience is listed as follows:

Williams Aeronautical Research Co., 24 West 17th St., N.Y.C.,
Design and Development Engineer. 6/38 to 6/40.

Newark Signal Corps, 309 Washington St., Newark, N. J., Associate Engineer (Resident Inspector) Technical Assistant to 1st Lt. Bernard Cleott, Officer in Charge of the Electronics Branch Area A, New York City from 9/40 to 2/45. In connection with this employment he was Resident Inspector in Charge for the Signal Corps in plants such as Peter A. Petroff, Jefferson
graph Corporation.

A statement on the above mentioned Occupational Classification Affidavit from the HILSON RADIO & PHONOGRAPH CORPORATION regarding the activities of that firm is set forth as follows:

"We are engaged 100% in the manufacture of radio and radar equipment for the Armed Forces. Herson's activity is rated "CRITICAL" since 70% of our production is currently needed radar equipments with the balance devoted to extremely important electronic devices for all branches of the Armed Forces. Our devices include the radio tally, airborne communication, radar equipment, wide water sound instruments, electric entrance radar devices, radio direction finders, navigational equipment and field test instruments."

ROSENBERG was employed by the HILSON Company at an initial rate of $70.00 per week, and was recommended by Mr. Ben Adams, President of the HILSON RADIO & PHONOGRAPH CORPORATION.

In his application for employment ROSENBERG listed the following education:

Public School #38, Lewis and Livingston Streets, graduated 6/30

Seward Park High School, Essex and Grand Streets, graduated 6/34

City College of New York, 139th St. and Convent Ave., graduated January, 1939 with a B. E. E. (Electrical Engineering)

References listed by the subject are set forth as follows:

Dr. M. Lionel Hart 63-45 Metherole St. Rego Park, Long Island

Charles Lipton, 309 E. 22nd St. N.Y.C.

Benjamin Yelsky 1004 L. Parkway Brooklyn, N. Y.

Abraham Golifeld, 130 Baruch Place

A description of the subject as obtained from his application for employment is also set forth as follows:

Name	JULIUS ROSENBERG
Address	10 Baruch St. New York City
Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	32
Birthdate	May 12, 1913
Birthplace	New York, New York

Harry Rosenberg--father
Sophie Rosenberg--mother
David Rosenberg--brother
Mrs. Leza Cohen--sister
Mrs. Ethel Goldberg--sister
Barnett Greenglass--father-in-law
Tessie Greenglass--mother-in-law

It is further pointed out that the subject's attendance record during his employment at the RADIO CORPORATION reflect that he was out on sick leave for the entire period from September 4 to 7, inc., 1945. The record indicates that MOSKOWITZ because of this illness was absent from work September 1 to 9, inc. which period includes week ends and a holiday. Dr. Certo stated that no physicians certificate was required at that time and none was submitted by the subject.

General inquiry at 26 West 17th St., NYC revealed that the address 24 West 16th Street is no longer in existence. the old building bearing that address having been razed. and a new building bearing the address 22 West 17th St. was constructed on that site. It is pointed out that the Williams Aeronautical Research Corporation was previously located at 24 West 17th St. N.Y.

RE: DAVID GREENGLASS
ESPIONAGE - R

Pursuant to telephone call from Inspector Belmont on 6/28/50, O. John Rogge, attorney for DAVID GREENGLASS, was interviewed at his office, 401 Broadway, New York City, on the same day.

Mr. Rogge felt that GREENGLASS had not made complete divulgence of his activities. From the family relationship, namely RUTH GREENGLASS, DAVID, and JULIUS ROSENBERG, there are doubtless other items that might be disclosed by GREENGLASS according to Rogge and he feels the he, Rogge, will obtain these items in subsequent consultations with this client.

One item Rogge suggested that GOLD be questioned regarding is the identity of the person who gave GOLD the one half box top. Thus the Bureau may be able to identify the person of more importance than GREENGLASS. He offered this item as evidence of good faith to cooperate.

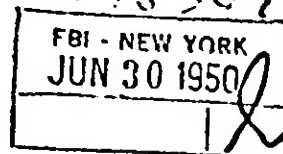

Rogge said there is only one other person that GREENGLASS can implicate and that is his brother-in-law JULIUS ROSENBERG.

Rogge said that he had not discussed his program of cooperation with GREENGLASS before going to Washington on 6/27/50. He did, however, discuss the matter with RUTH GREENGLASS and she stated she was willing to cooperate by all means.

On June 28, 1950, Rogge took up the matter with GREENGLASS and now he has the authority of his client to offer his cooperation. Rogge said that until this program of cooperation is worked out he does not want the matter discussed with ROSENBERG.

Rogge said that there was one item that had not been disclosed to the Bureau agents and that was the fact that "they" wanted GREENGLASS to stay on at Los Alamos and that he refused. Rogge said he desired his client to cooperate with the Government because in so doing the identity of a more important individual or individuals might be disclosed. Rogge said that when he broached the matter of cooperation to RUTH GREENGLASS he said that he could not promise her anything. He stated. He stated he cited to her one instance where he recommended that a client of his in the WILLIE BIOFF case cooperate with the Government and as a result received leniency.

GREENGLASS told Rogge that the identification of his contact at Los Alamos would be affected by the presentation of one half box top, GREENGLASS holding the matching one-half. Rogge said that the entire box top originated with GREENGLASS' brother-in-law. Rogge said that according to GREENGLASS, GOLD was not supposed to be the man to contact him at Los Alamos. He suggested therefore that GOLD be interviewed as to the identify of the person who gave him the one half box top. This person would be the important person in the case.

Rogge said he was now waiting for the decision of the Department regarding the program of cooperation outlined to them by Rogge.
